

Southern California Teachers of English
Fall 2017

Off the Page, Into the World: Writing for Authentic Audiences

October 21, 2017 from 8:30 AM-2:30 PM
UNITED TEACHERS OF LOS ANGELES
3303 WILSHIRE BLVD., 10TH FLOOR, LOS ANGELES, CA

Conference

Join us for a day of workshops on teaching writing for real-world audiences. Stenhouse author

Mark Overmeyer

will model how to engage students in peer response modeled after a real-world writer's workshop.

Workshops

A panel of professionals will capture how writing works in their respective careers; experienced teachers will explore this theme in workshops, including how to use a real-world mentor text in the classroom.

Delicious Food

Continental breakfast will be provided, and Homeboy Industries will cater a taco bar for lunch.

Mark Overmeyer currently works full time supporting reading and writing workshops in schools around the US and internationally. His most recent book is Let's Talk (Stenhouse, 2015).

To Register:

Join SCTE for a day of writing for authentic audiences. Ask about a continuing education unit upon check-in.

Use this link to register on Eventbrite:
https://scte_fall2017.eventbrite.com

Cost: $95 for members; $145 for non-members (includes a $50 CATE Membership); $35 for student teachers.

SCTE is a regional affiliate of the California Teachers of English (CATE).

Questions? Contact us for answers:

Tracy Sprague at tracysprague@gmail.com.

Please make checks and PO's payable to Southland Council of Teachers of English. Send checks and PO's by October 6 to:

SCTE Treasurer
R. Seligson
C/O Hale Charter Academy
23830 Califa St., Woodland Hills, CA 91367

Registrant's Name _____

School _____

PO Number _____

Email _____

Total: _____ Member ___ Non-member