

Spring Fling 2018

Mike Sonksen, also known as Mike the Poet, is a 3rd-generation LA native acclaimed for poetry performances, published articles and legendary city tours. Poet, journalist, historian, tour guide, and teacher, he first graduated from UCLA, then completed an Interdisciplinary M.A. in English and History from the Cal State LA. Sonksen has lectured at and had his book I AM ALIVE IN LOS ANGELES! added to the curriculum of over 60 universities and high schools.

Please join us for SCTE's Spring Fling 2018: A Walk and Write along the LA River with Mike the Poet! This adventure—a brief walk, a brief write, then a discussion about place-based writing in the classroom—will run from 10 am to noon on Saturday, April 28th, at Marsh Street Park in Los Angeles. Register at catweb.org for just $25, or email Tracy Sprague at tracysprague@gmail.com with any questions!
