Need to bring your writing lessons back to life? Not too scared to try something new? After a great share by Heather Macias, teacher consultant at the South Coast Writing Project, you'll choose from a menu of spook-tacular lesson ideas created by expert ELA teachers. By the end of our time together, you'll come away with a bag of writing-centered activities ready to implement in class on Monday.

An optional tour of the brand-new Billie Jean King Library will follow the workshop.

No tricks, just treats! Admission: $20 non-CATE members/$15 CATE members/$10 student teachers
